ACT College Readiness Benchmarks

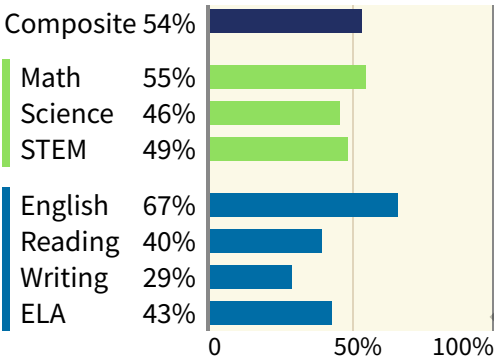

● Readiness Benchmark

If your score is at or above the Benchmark, you have at least a 50% chance of obtaining a B or higher or about a 75% chance of obtaining a C or higher in specific first-year college courses in the corresponding subject area. There is currently no Benchmark for writing.

Your Score Range

Test scores are estimates of your academic achievement. For each test, your true achievement likely falls within a small range above or below your score. Each range, shown by the bands around your scores, reflects typical fluctuations you might see if you retake the test within a short time.

US Rank

State Rank

US & State Rank

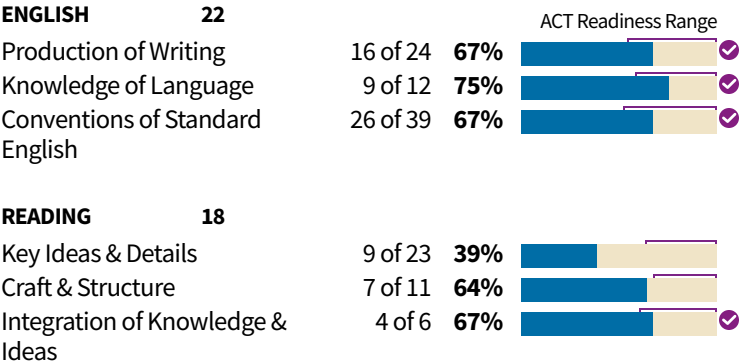

Your ranks tell you the approximate percentages of recent high school graduates in the US and your state who took the ACT® test and received scores that are the same as or lower than your scores. For example, a rank of 56 for your Composite score means 56% of students earned that Composite score or below.

Detailed Results

ACT Composite Score: Beginning with all ACT tests taken in September 2025, the Composite score is the average of the math, English, and reading scores. For most ACT tests taken prior to September 2025, the Composite score also includes the science score. The Composite score is not computed when any of the test scores that contribute to it are missing. With the exception of writing, all test scores range from 1 to 36.

ACT Readiness Range: This range shows where a student who has met the ACT College Readiness Benchmark on this subject test would typically perform.

If you took the writing test, your essay was scored on a scale of 1 to 6 by two raters in each of the four writing domains. These domains represent essential skills and abilities that are necessary to meet the writing demands of college and career. Your domain scores, ranging from 2 to 12, are a sum of the two raters' scores. Your writing score is the average of your four domain scores rounded to the nearest whole number. Sending Your Scores

A score report (including your photo) was automatically sent to the high school you reported when registration was completed for the test. Your school will use this information for counseling, evaluating the effectiveness of instruction, and planning changes and improvements in the curriculum.

At your direction, your scores from this test date are also being reported to the colleges shown. (Be aware that when you send a report to a college that is part of a school system, the college may share your score with other colleges in that system.) Institutions use your test scores along with high school grades, academic preparation, out-of-class accomplishments, future plans, and other factors to help identify applicants who can benefit most from their programs. In addition, colleges can use results on the ACT to assist scholarship/loan agencies in identifying qualified candidates, place students in first-year courses, and help students develop an appropriate program of study.

If you entered a college code incorrectly or forgot to include one, don't worry! You can still send scores to other colleges. Visit www.act.org/the-act/scores to explore student resources or to order additional score reports.

College and Career Planning

Where are you going? Knowing your interests can help you find the kinds of majors and occupations that may be right for you. Occupations differ widely in how much they involve working with four basic work tasks: Data, Ideas, People, and Things. Before you took the ACT, you completed an interest inventory. Your results point to occupations that involve the kinds of basic work tasks you prefer. Visit www.act.org/collegeplanning to learn more.

According to your results, you enjoy working with Data and Things. Here are a few examples of occupations involving this kind of work:

- Aircraft Pilot
- Database Administrator
- Detective (Police)
- Fish and Game Warden
- Soil Conservationist

Interest-Major Fit

Do your interests fit the college major you plan to enter? Based on information you provided, you plan to enter Business Admin & Mgmt, Gen.

Your interests are fairly similar to the interests of college students in the major you plan to enter. Students in majors that fit their interests are often more satisfied with their major.

Progress Toward the ACT National Career Readiness Certificate®

This indicator provides an estimate of the ACT National Career Readiness Certificate (ACT NCRC®) that students with your ACT Composite score are likely to obtain. The ACT NCRC is an assessment-based credential that documents foundational work skills important for job success across industries and occupations. Visit www.act.org/NCRC-indicator to learn more.

Students with this ACT Composite score are likely to obtain a Silver level NCRC.

SCORE VERIFICATION SERVICE

You can ask ACT to verify your multiple-choice and/or your writing test scores up to twelve months after your test date. A verification request form is available at www.act.org/the-act/scores . You will need to complete the form and mail to:

ACT Customer Support
PO Box 414
Iowa City, IA 52243-0414, USA

Enclose a check payable to ACT Customer Support for the applicable fee.

For multiple-choice tests, ACT will verify that your responses were checked against the correct score key.

For writing tests, ACT will verify that your essay was scored by at least two independent, qualified readers and by a third reader in the event that the two scores differed by more than one point in any domain. ACT will also verify that your essay was properly captured and displayed to readers. If errors are discovered during score verification, ACT will rescore your essay.

ACT will inform you by letter of the results of the score verification about three to five weeks after receiving your request. If a scoring error is discovered, your scores will be changed and corrected reports will be released to you and all previous score report recipients at no charge. In addition, your score verification fee will be refunded.

If required under applicable law, ACT will permit you to be present for the verification of your test scores at a mutually agreed upon location.

Additional fees will apply.

If an error is not found to be made by ACT and you wish to send corrected reports, you must request and pay for Additional Score Reports.
