ACT Engage Grades 10-12 measures personal, behavioral, and academic skills critical to high school and college achievement. Low scores on ACT Engage represent areas that, when improved, may increase your grades and make it easier to focus on being successful as you transition into college. This report is designed to help you identify your strengths and weaknesses in order to ensure that you are successful in your academic career.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR SCORES

Your scores are reported in terms of percentiles. Your percentiles tell you the approximate percentages of students in schools like yours who took ACT Engage and scored at or below your score.

Scales highlighted in red are areas that you may want to focus on developing as you continue your education.

STUDENT SELF REPORT

High school GPA: (C- to C) 1.5 - 1.9

Capitalize on your strengths

99 Academic self-confidence

The belief in one's ability to perform well in school — Your score on this scale suggests you feel highly confident in your ability to succeed academically. Confidence in your abilities is critical to your academic success.

99 Commitment to college

One's commitment to staying in college and getting a degree — Your response suggests that you feel confident in your reasons for continuing your education. You see yourself as determined to invest the necessary time and effort required to attain a high school diploma and college degree.

77 Goal striving

The strength of one's efforts to achieve objectives and end goals — Your response indicates that you see yourself as goal driven. You generally set appropriate goals and you feel confident in your ability to achieve these goals. Establishing and accomplishing goals is an important life skill that is essential for success in high school and beyond and will help you to maintain your motivation, energy, and focus.

Continue to develop your skills

57 Social activity

One's comfort in meeting and interacting with other people — Your response suggests you feel relatively comfortable interacting with people you do not know and making new friends. Your social skills may benefit you in courses that emphasize team projects and other collaborative assignments.

42 Steadiness

One's responses to and management of strong feelings — Your response indicates that you see yourself as capable of effectively controlling your emotions. You feel as though you do not often lose your temper and you manage frustration well. You are fairly effective in keeping emotions from affecting your academic performance and other important activities in your life.

35 Social connection

One's feelings of connection and involvement with the college community — Your response suggests you see yourself as connected with your school and its student body. Your involvement in school activities will provide a valuable source of stress relief and social interaction that will serve to enhance feelings of connection.

33 Communication skills

Attentiveness to others' feelings and flexibility in resolving conflicts with others — Your score on this scale suggests that you tend to see yourself as fairly comfortable when communicating with others, handling interpersonal conflicts, and working collaboratively with others. These skills will help you in learning and work environments as you effectively exchange information, cooperate with others, and work as a team member.

Make plans for improvement23 Academic discipline

The amount of effort a student puts into schoolwork and the degree to which a student is hardworking and conscientious — Your response suggests you frequently approach academic related tasks with less enthusiasm and effort than other students. You may frequently rush through your homework without giving much attention to detail, turn in poor or incomplete work, or give up on difficult tasks or problems.

20 General determination

The extent to which one strives to follow through on commitments and obligations — Your score on this scale suggests that you see yourself as someone who often has difficulty fulfilling your assigned responsibilities or duties. If something more interesting presents itself, you may pursue that interest rather than uphold your prior obligations and/or tend to your commitments. Other people may not be able to depend on you to fulfill your promises.

14 Study skills

The extent to which students believe they know how to assess an academic problem, organize a solution, and successfully complete academic assignments — Your response indicates that you feel you lack good study skills, problem-solving skills, and learning strategies. Like academic abilities, these skills are important in predicting your success in high school and beyond.

Recommended plan of action

Your ACT Engage scores provide information that can help you develop your personal and academic-related skills, which in turn can help you to perform well in high school and facilitate your transition to college. By focusing on building those skills for which you obtained relatively lower scores, you can derive maximum benefit from the learning and growth opportunities available to you.
